Earnestness in Carrying Out Program Evident at Conference on Subject

JULY 1 DEADLINE IS SET

Applies to Boston, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington Territories

NEW YORK, April 4.- That members of the Eastern Underwriters Association are determined to carry out the separation program in the excepted cities of the east, agreed upon at the special meeting March 7, was evidenced by the earnestness with which the subject was further considered at the gathering of the body March 28.

Must Change by July 1

July 1 was the date set before which all organization companies must arrange such agency changes in Boston, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington, as may be necessary under the regulation. One prominent foreign company already has instructed its field men to proceed in the matter, and doubtless others have acted, or very shortly will, to the same end. Still other com-panies will deal directly from headquarters with their local representatives.

The change, in some cases, will mean substantial loss of income, should present agencies prefer continuing their non-affiliated connections, but the offices concerned are prepared to make whatever sacrifice they may be put to in orto attain a clear agency alignment.

How the mutual problem will be dealt with will be determined at a further special meeting to be held early in July, sentiment on the subject not having sufficiently crystallized at this time. It is probable, too, that the commission situation in Boston will have to be taken up separately, as several matters in connection with it require further study.

Favor Rule for New Jersey

So far as New Jersey is concerned, the E. U. A. went on record as unanimously favoring its commission rule for that state, President H. V. Smith being directed to convey such assurance to the insurance department of the state.

The meeting of the association last

The meeting of the association last week was a prolonged one, and was largely attended by important company argely attended by important company executives.

While the separation rule, in so far as the excepted cities are concerned, is applicable to mutuals as well as to non-affiliated stock offices, enforcement of the provision will be deferred for a time in Philadelphia suburban and that time in Philadelphia suburban and that section of Boston metropolitan territory outside the city proper. Many agents outside the city proper.

in New England and in the section conin New England and in the section con-tiguous to Philadelphia represent mutual companies, largely of the type writing residential business, and have done so for many years. Competition from such source has not been serious and no hardship, it was felt, would result if ap-plication of the separation rule regarding small mutuals were deferred for a time.

It was reported that substantial saving had been effected during the past year as the result of consolidating various rating bureaus, notably those in Pennsylvania, and that a plan virtually had been completed for merging three others in another field. By virtue of the consolidations made and those in-tended in the near future, assurance was given that not only would there be a marked reduction in the cost of the rating service throughout the east, but that distinct gain would be made in securing uniformity of requirements and charges in the different territories.

The advantages of the merger arrangement are so many and obvious that the natural inquiry was advanced as to why the move had not been inaugurated years ago. There will be no interference with rating organizations in states where such bodies are required under the law.

Paul Haid's Views

NEW YORK, April 4 .- To the considerable embarrassment of P. L. Haid, president of the Insurance Executives Association, certain of his remarks made at the gathering of the Detroit Association of Insurance Agents, were misquoted in press accounts. In referring to agency and company relationships Mr. Haid points out he said in part: "At a recent meeting of our association a prominent company ex-ecutive urged that more aggressive efforts be made to bring agents and companies closer together."

theme, he stated there was "a regrettable widening of the breach between companies and agents, and nothing had been done in recent months to widen this gap more than the action of the National Association of Insurance Agents in the filing of a code," adding "that our organization wished to do everything possible in the line of cooperation with agents to bring about a closer and more harmonious relationship."

Home Resignation Still on the Fire

Subject of Its Retirement from the National Board is Gripping

WORK FOR SOME CHANGES

Hoped That Proper Adjustment Can Be Made That Will Harmonize All Differences

NEW YORK, April 4.-Interest in the Home-National Board situation continues keen, doubly so in the absence of authentic information as to the measure of progress attained in composing the differences between the two organizations. It is understood that several informal conferences have been held between Wilfred Kurth, president of the Home, and Edward Milligan, chairman of the committee of ten named by the executive committee of the National Board, to explore each of the subjects on which Mr. Kurth based the resignation of his group. That the National Board will continue to operate whatever the outcome, is a foregone conclusion. The hope still is that an arrangement will be effected that will secure the continued cooperation of the Home

The prediction is further advanced that prior to the annual meeting of the National Board the latter part of next month, changes in various divisions of its administration will have been decided upon, the nature of which will be made public at the gathering.

No hint as to the character of the changes intended is obtainable from any reliable source, hence speculation as to their possible nature would be futile. From time to time in the past some managers have felt that the National Board was spending considerable sums maintaining services, which, while distinct benefit to the insuring public or to property-owners generally, regardless of whether they carried insurance or not, might be curtailed, in that while the profit was to the public as a whole the entire cost of operation was borne by the stock interests. How far, if at all, such service should be reduced, or the cost spread broadly among all benefiting, is one of the questions again being given attention.

Committee to Meet Soon

Since their appointment at the spe-cial meeting of the executive committee of the National Board March 14, mem-bers of the committee of ten have been giving attentive thought to the issues raised through the resignation of Mr. Kurth, and will submit their individual views at a meeting of the committee to be held within a few days. BIG SAVINGS LAST YEAR

Urban Fire Losses 42 Percent Less Than in 1932 and Farm Losses 10 Percent Less

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Decreases in 1933 of 42 percent in the urban property loss through fire and nearly 10 percent in the farm loss were reported to the National Fire Waste Council at its annual meeting by George W. Booth, chairman of the contest grading com-

Reports from 335 of the 388 cities entered in the fire waste reduction contest showed a reduction in the per capita fire loss from a five year average of $2.47 to $1.37, the lowest figure reported for any year since the council was organized in 1922.

Fewer Large Fires

The fire loss in the 335 cities submitting detailed reports, with a population in excess of 35,000,000, was $48,150,000 last year, as compared with a five year average of $82,951,500, Mr. Booth announced. The reduction in loss was due to a reduction in the number of fires causing a loss in excess of $1,000 from a five year average of $,923 to 5,841, a drop of 34.5 percent, although the number of fires of all losses declined only 3.1 percent.

Announcement was made that Lakewood, O., was the winner of the grand award in the contest.

In class 1 cities of more than 500,000 population the winner was Philadelphia; class II, 250,000 to 500,000, Providence, R. I.; class III, 100,000 to 250,000, Hartford; class IV, 50,000 to 100,000, Lakewood; class V, 20,000 to 50,000, Owensboro, Ky.; class VI, under 20,000, Palo Alto, Cal.

The winning cities will receive their awards at the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in Washington in May

Estimates of the farm fire loss place the total for last year at approximately $100,000,000, a reduction of $15,000,000, it was reported by I. D. Goss, chairman of the agricultural committee. The in 1932, he pointed out, was equivalent to a fire tax of more than $19 on every farmer in the country, so that the decrease in loss last year represents a reduction of at least $2.50 in per capita

A total of 619 cities are entered in the fire waste contest for the current year, against 582 a year ago, it was reported by R. E. Vernor, chairman of the contest committee. However 37 percent of the eligible cities have not yet entered the contest.

The cities awarded honorable mention in the various classifications are as follows:

Correspondence between executives of the National Association of Insurance Agents and Herbert U. Mr. Nelson attended a session of the executive committee of the agents' association during the mid-year meeting at Louisville and an understanding was reached whereby the real estate organization would the real estate organization would not oppose the insurance code, provided the word "control" were substituted for the word "influence" in the section which would prohibit credit agencies from forcing borrowers to place their insurance through the lending agency.

Company Is Not Tolerating Rate Cutting or Commutation of Premiums

RUMORS ARE UNFOUNDED

U. S. Manager Contends Many Agents Blame Pearl for Every Competitive Line They Lose

Charles S. Conklin, who recently assumed his position as United States manager of the Pearl of London, has come out with a strong statement as to the policies of that company, stating that rate cutting is not being tolerated and expressing the belief that many agents, upon the slightest pretext or excuse, are disposed to blame the Pearl for every line that they lose.

Mr. Conklin promises that if he is advised of specific charges of unlawful practices, he will make a thorough investigation and will not be a party to any course of conduct which will invite criticism by any insurance department, any rating organization or bureau of which the company is a member.

Mr. Conklin's statement is presented herewith:

Made General Survey

"I was appointed United States man-ager of the Pearl Assurance March 1, 1934. Immediately upon undertaking my duties I addressed myself to a general survey and analysis of the company's underwriting activities and practices throughout the United States. Obviously, in the time that has elapsed since my appointment it has been impossible for me to claim to have sequiment as the company to the state. pointment it has been impossible for me to claim to have acquired an intimate knowledge of all of these activities prior to my appointment. I confess I am very much disturbed by the continual newspaper announcements as to the activities of the Pearl and, in many of the specific instances which have been brought to my attention during the brief term of my office, have found these rumors and statements appearing in the public press to be utterly without foundation.

in the public press to be utterly without foundation.

"In one article which appeared in the public press the statement was made that the Pearl grants to agents special contingent commissions. This, in some instances, may be true but the granting of such special commissions in the case of the Pearl involves no violation of statute or rules of any rating organization of which the Pearl is a member, but when the granting of such special contingent commissions to agents is coupled with the statement that it affords agents of the Pearl an opportunity to offer certain special inducements to to offer certain special inducements to the assured, the inference is clear that the Pearl is indulging in rate cutting. This does not follow, and it has not the approval of the management as represented by me.

Iowa and Nebraska

"It has been claimed in the public press that the Pearl's agents have written risks at 25 percent rate reductions and granted to assured permission to pay in five annual installments. If this has been offered, and I know of no instance where it has been done, I most unhesitatingly condemn the practice. Recently rumors reached me of disturbances in Iowa and Nebraska and upon inquiry, even to the point of sending for the general agent to come to New York, I found that certain other companies had, according to the agent, offered certain (CONTINUED ON PAGE 29)

First of the Season's Hail Policies Are Now Coming in

The first new hail policies are beginning to come in on the Kansas wheat crop. Reports at headquarters are that crop. Reports at headquarters are that the lack of moisture during the winter has caused considerable damage to the mas caused considerable damage to the winter wheat in the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma, in all of New Mexico and in southwestern Kansas. Because of the lack of moisture, much of the soil was blown off and the recent precipitation therefore did not help much.

Expect Increased Volume

An increased volume of hail business is anticipated this season, because at the outset, at least, the price of grain is such as to indicate a profit to the farmer and make worth while the insuring of the crop. However, some of the hail men fear that some of the artificial methods that have been used to bolster up agriculture may become discredited and cause a drop in prices before the season is over. In that case, collections for the hail premiums would be difficult.

Canadian Casualty Figures Include Data on Sidelines

OTTAWA, ONT., April 4.—Several of the insurance "sidelines" classed in Canada as casualty and included in the compilation of the casualty experience for 1933, just made public by the Dominion department, are written only by fire and marine companies in the United States. The largest of these reported separately is inland transportation, which separately is inland transportation, which showed premiums of $990,983 and losses $301,598, loss ratio 30.42 percent. premium volume showed very change from the preceding year. Automobile insurance is all reported under one heading, with premiums of $11,-933,534 and losses $5,387,636, loss ratio 45.15 percent. Tornado insurance, with only $120,778 premiums, showed a loss ratio of 104.24 percent, and hail, with premiums of $494,402, had a 47.88 loss ratio. The volume of earthquake, rain and aviation business reported was very small.

The Iown Fire Prevention Association will inspect Cherokee April 18.

Valuable Reference Books Now Ready -Give Much Information That Is Useful to Agents

Figures on small companies and large ones are of more interest now than they have been for many years. Agents can well remember the boom times when the assured was not interested in the kind of company he was given. Now nearly every customer has some question to ask about the standing of insurance companies, either those represented by an agent or by his competi-

The Argus Fire Chart and the Argus Casualty Chart, published by The NATIONAL UNDERWRITER, are the most complete financial reference books published on stock and mutual companies, reciprocals and Lloyds. Each of these charts gives companies on which figures are not available in any other reference book. The great feature of the Argus Charts is the number of companies on which they give figures.

For his own companies of course an agent usually has printed statements. However when he meets with questions on other companies he is at a disadvantage unless he has the Argus Chart.

Useful Information Given

Stock companies, American and for-eign, form the first list in the Argus Fire Chart. Next comes the mutual fire companies, and this list shows whether they write automobile, aircraft, fire, hail, marine or tornado. Following this is the showing of farm mutuals arranged by states, all companies being given that write $25,000 a year in premiums or more. After the farm mutuals come the reciprocals, inter-insurance exchanges and Lloyds, this list also showing whether they write automobile, fire, hail, marine or tornado. Besides the list of companies, with a showing of their financial condition, there is a gain and losse exhibit, showing the underwriting and investment operations of stock companies. The premiums and losses on the accessory lines of stock companies appear in a separate of stock companies appear in a separate showing, and another exhibit gives the amounts received from and remitted to the home offices of United States branches of foreign companies.

Where Companies Are Licensed

A particularly valuable feature is a list showing the states in which each stock company is licensed. A similar showing is made for the agency mutuals that operate in three or more states.

Another useful exhibit is a grouping of companies according to ownership or of companies according to ownership of management. Thus companies affiliated with the Continental, Royal-Liverpool, the Home of New York, etc., are listed together. The list showing where companies are licensed is ingeniously used as an index, not only to the company fleet affiliations, but to underwriters' agencies.

All this supplementary information is in addition to the most complete listing of company financial exhibits to be found in any one publication, large or small.

Many Pittsburgh Agencies Mixed

Separation in the Allegheny County Field Is Big

Issue

SENTIMENT IS SURVEYED

Although Crum & Forster Voted Against Separation, the Group Will Carry Out Program

PITTSBURGH, April 4.-No concerted action has been taken by local fire insurance companies as yet toward putting into effect separation among agents in accordance with the plan adopted at the special meeting of the Eastern Underwriters Association on

While the heads of several companies professed to be marking time, others admitted that their field men were carefully canvassing the situation, and that fully canvassing the situation, and that special representatives had been sent out to go over the ground with a view to meeting the demands of the E. U. A. with as little delay as possible.

One prominent general agent declared that he considered the situation created by the action of the E. U. A. to be "full of dynamite."

"While attending the mid-year meeting of the National Association of Insurance Agents at Louisville," he said, "I learned that Pittsburgh might expect within the next two weeks a visit from the Pennsylvania committee to go over the situation. This city is likely to be the center of the fight, if there is one, owing to the extremely large number of mixed agencies in existence here. Later, there may be something definite to say."

Views of Unverzagt

Admitting that the Crum & Forster group had voted against the separation resolution, G. W. Unverzagt, manager of the Crum & Forster Allegheny department and president of the Alleman-nia Fire, stated that the negative vote was cast because it was felt the present was a poor time to act, although he em-phasized that he was strong for the Eastern Underwriters Association and its principles Eastern Underwriters Association and its principles.

"Insurance companies have been having their troubles, along with all other lines of business," stated Mr. Unverzagt, "and our group voted as we did because we believed it better not to disturb the status quo at this time. However, we are going ahead with a view to completing separation by July 1, the date specified, and have our men out now canvassing the situation.

Many Details Involved

"In the territory affected, I would say that 85 percent of the premium-volume business is represented in the E. U. A. "We will not be greatly affected," he said, "because most of our business has been with companies lined up with the E. U. A. However, the situation presents a problem for agencies whose business is about equally divided between the two groups.

"Undoubtedly, the E. U. A. feels that it holds the upper hand in the controversy, or it would not have forced the issue at this time. I suppose there have been sharp practices, probably on both sides, but I am inclined to believe they have not been so prevalent in Pittsburgh as in some other excepted cities, in spite of the large number of mixed agencies which exist in this ter-

Pearl Now Complies with Requirements in Michigan

JOINS BUREAU BELATEDLY

Company Operated in State Last Year Without Applying for Membership in Inspection Bureau

LANSING, MICH., April 4.—With renewal of its direct writing license for the coming year at stake, the Pearl has complied with Michigan departmental requirements relative to membership in the Michigan inspection bureau for the entire period since the company's admission as a direct writer April 6, 1933.

the Michigan inspection bureau for the entire period since the company's admission as a direct writer April 6, 1933.

Department authorities have just received from the bureau confirmation of the fact that the Pearl has taken membership effective as of its date of admission and has paid its pro rata share of assessment for use of bureau rates during the year. Approximately $108,000 in fire premiums were collected by the company on Michigan business in 1933.

Ultimatum Is Given

The department's attention was called to the situation when a communication from the company disclosed that it was "following bureau rates" during the 1933 period although it had not applied for membership. Neither had it filed its rates with the department evidencing operation of its own rating bureau. Department officials immediately demanded that the company apply for membership in the bureau as of the date of admission to the state.

ply for membership in the bureau as of the date of admission to the state.

The Pearl was formerly licensed in Michigan as a reinsurer but was discovered to have written some business directly and at a cut rate, through a Chicago broker. It was fined and its license suspended for a time. Later it applied for a direct writing license which was finally granted.

IS CLEAR ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—The Pacific Board has been advised that contrary to reports the Pearl Assurance is accepting no reinsurance of the Monarch Fire in the states under its jurisdiction. The board has these assurances from J. F. Guinness, home office representative of the Pearl and President Ralph Rawlings of the Monarch. This statement from the eastern officials to the board stated in part: "It was understood and agreed that no cessions would be made by the Monarch or accepted by the Pearl in Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, Montana and Utah."

Ohio Underwriters Consider Delinquent Agency Matter

The Ohio Fire Underwriters Association, meeting in Columbus Tuesday, considered adoption of a rule to make more definite the line of procedure to be followed by committees in handling affairs of delinquent agencies. No action was taken. The association was addressed by W. G. Pickerel of Dayton, former lieutenant-governor and candidate for Democratic nomination for governor. He told of development of the United States and its form of government and of changes taking place.

Notes," by the Indiana Blue Goose, of which he has long been the wielder of the goose quill, at a party this week. It was in the nature of a testimonial dinner in appreciation of his 25th anniversary as wielder. There were more than 100 people present. In the afternoon with Most Loyal Gander J. N. Cline presiding, there were eight goslings initiated.

Among those present who paid tribute to Mr. Williams' splendid character and great contribution to the business were L. H. Wolff, former assistant western manager Aetna Fire and now manager of the Merchants & Manufacturers Insurance Bureau of Indianapolis; A. R. Monroe, former president Newark Fire; Robert McHatton, former state agent New York Underwriters; Harry McClain, Indiana insurance commissioner; John C. Kidd, former Indiana insurance commissioner, and State Agent O. E. Green of the Providence Washington, dean of the Indiana insurance men. Most Loyal Gander Cline presided as toastmaster.

At the conclusion of the dinner State presided as toastmaster.

At the conclusion of the dinner State Agent J. W. Noble of the Security of New Haven, on behalf of the Indiana Blue Goose, presented Wielder Williams with a handsome watch. Special Agent E. H. Richardson of the Phoenix of Hartford was chairman of the entertainment committee. As an indication of the affection the Indiana people have for Mr. Williams the letter of W. M. Shaw was symbolic in which he said: "One meets in the course of a lifetime few Irving Williams. It is a great pleasure to observe that the splendid service rendered without a break through a quarter of a century is truly appreciated by his fellows."

from the fireman.

Further inquiry probably will be made into charges of Charles A. Johnson, suspended superintendent of city fire prevention bureau, that he believed the recent increase in the number of suspicious fires was the result of improper investigation and lack of cooperation between the state and city fire marshal's offices.

Ninety-seven Percent Prospects!

Less than three percent of America's cars are insured against the kind of loss most likely to happen!

About twenty-five percent of America's cars are insured against public liability and property damage. (Excluding Massachusetts, where all are.)

There are, then, some fifteen million car owners who may still be sold PL and PD. But there are nineteen and a half millions who have not yet bought collision

We'll grant you that PL and PD are easier to sell to most people. The seventy-five percent will probably buy those coverages first. But that still leaves some four and a half million prospects who have PL and PD but haven't yet bought collision. Isn't it probable that that 22% have more money left for insurance premiums and are more insurance-minded than the 75% who have bought neither?

You have before you the amazing picture of 4,500,000 Americans who are so unselfish that they spend their good money protecting the other fellow while leaving their own cars unprotected! How long do you suppose that situation would last if all American Agents went out and told those auto owners the whys and wherefores of collision insurance?

Audit Bureaus Criticise Use of Ambiguous Terms

CITE EXTENSIONS, ADDITIONS

Courts Hold Companies Liable for Loss to Buildings Not Intended to Be Covered

The companies are giving attention to the practice on the part of certain agents in using the phrase "additions" and/or "extensions" in preparing forms covering a building and/or contents under a specific form of policy. These terms are indefinite and ambiguous and in a number of cases the courts have interpreted "additions" to apply to property, which the parties have no intention of covering. The audit bureaus lately have been criticising such ambiguous expressions. expressions, expressions.

There was a decision recently by the court of appeals in one of the states holding for the assured in the loss of a frame building, in the rear of the main building. There was no intention on the part of the company of covering the building which burned, but the policy operation the main building included the covering the main building included the phrase "additions thereto adjoining and communicating." In this case the means of communication were steam pipes and a steel cable running between the two buildings. The law has now finally been settled, according to the decision of the court of appeals in that case, that there need be no physical connection between two buildings in order to have a loss, which occurs in one, covered under policies of insurance which in-sured "additions thereto adjoining and communicating.

Iowa Commissioner Keeps Office; Unpaid 8 Months

DES MOINES, April 4.—The Iowa supreme court has upheld the decision supreme court has upheld the decision of the Polk county district court that Commissioner E. W. Clark was rightfully appointed to his office and is entitled to his back salary held up since last summer by the state comptroller on advice of the attorney general. Mr. Clark is now the only major Republican officeholder in Iowa and has been in constant controversy with the Iowa executive council the past year.

executive council the past year.

It has been eight months since Mr.

Clark has had a pay day. He admits he has been living on credit since his last pay check arrived July 31, 1933.

Attorney-General's Ruling

At that time the Iowa attorney general's office held Mr. Clark was disqualified to hold office and held up his pay. Mr. Clark went into court and won the district court decision but the attorney general appealed to the supreme court and his pay is still held up. Meantime Mr. Clark has found it necessary to take several trips on department business and has had to pay the expenses himself. He estimates that the total involved in pay checks and expense claims is approximately $3,000.

Mr. Clark says he has been borrowing on his life policies. "Some of the companies have been having a good deal of fun with me by writing to ask if the loan was a matter of absolute necessity," he says. "I told them that in this case it certainly was."

Under rules promulgated by the commissioner a year ago, it is required that actual necessity be shown by persons desiring policy loans. Mr. Clark has consequently been subjected to his own rules in the matter.

Points Out Exclusion of Steam Boilers, Tells What Constitutes Riot-What

F. I. A. Contracts Cover

The scope of riot, explosion and civil commotion coverage was outlined by C. T. Hubbard, assistant secretary Automobile of Hartford, in an address to the Insurance Society of Baltimore.

He pointed out that all explosion policies issued by fire companies exclude steam pressure explosions where the vessel or equipment is used for the pur-pose of generating steam, including steam boilers used for heating purposes, but that in case of hot water heaters, such explosion claims would be recog-

"The only sure definition," he asserted, "is that it would have to be a legitimate riot, a mob of people out of control. He cited the situation in a Massachusetts mill, employes of which had been working peacefully until they were roused to sudden frenzy by radical leaders. They then went on strike, and within 24 hours had damaged practically every piece of machinery in the mill by throwing stones bricks and other misthrowing stones, bricks and other missiles. In contrast to this case, where there was no question about the claim being legitimately covered, he cited an incident which occurred in a Brooklyn garment factory. Four men held up the owner, at gun-point, and with sciences owner at gun-point, and with scissors ripped off the lapels of a large number of garments. This deliberate action, following a strike, was declared by the court to be not a riot but a holdup.

Fire Damage from Riot Covered

The riot feature of these policies is somewhat unsatisfactory, he admitted, because of the variance in court interpretations, but there is one important feature valuable to the buyer and im-portant to the agent as a selling point. This is that the riot policy pays any fire damage resulting from a riot, which can ordinarily void the straight fire pol-

The Factory Insurance Association fire policy, he said, covers some explosion and riot hazards. Under the explosion portion of that contract, however, there is no protection for the explosion of pressure containers, and under the of pressure containers, and under the riot portion of the contract, no protection for the riot feature (mob violence). Property owners obtain protection for free, sprinkler leakage and water damage as a result of the riot; but not for the riot itself. However, an agent can arrange a policy at a low rate which picks up where the F. I. C C C Policy Excess Contract

LINCOLN, NEB., April 4.—Railway Commissioner Drake, in charge of hancommissioner brake, in charge of hand-dling applications for corn loans in Ne-braska, has issued a warning to farmers that, as he reads the insurance contracts taken out by the Commodity Credit Cor-poration, farmers are without protection in the event of loss of grain by fire, tornado, windstorm or other cause, and that if they wish that protection they must take steps to secure it personally. Mr. Drake says the C C C policies with the Hardford and Glens Falls are excess contracts only, serving to protect the government, but affording no protection to the farmer. In case of loss the excess insurance carrier will pay the C C and the insurer will then hold the farmer liable for the full amount of the loan.

the government of the insurance business, like the ocean tides, ebbs and flows. Just when opponents of the code idea were convinced the suggested rules of conduct filed by the National Association of Insurance Agents were hopelessly lost, Arthur Lazarus, in announcing his resignation as assistant deputy administrator at Washington, said "there was no basis for the reports which have been prevalent in various parts of the country that there would not be an insurance code."

W. H. Bennett, secretary of the agents' organization, too, is very confident that as a result of conferences with various officials of the NRA in recent months, a code of some sort would be adopted, a belief shared in by many of his executive associates.

In the absence of any official declaration on the subject by General Johnson, it is anyone's guess as to whether insurance is to have regulations set up.

YAGER, ALESHIRE RETURN

L. E. Yager, president of the Chicago Board, and O. E. Aleshire, have returned to Chicago after a trip to the east in which they sounded out sentiment as to the insurance code. They were representing the anti-code people in Chicago. After talking with eastern executives and brokers, they concluded that the code was a dead issue at present and consequently did not attempt to interview any of the NRA authorities in Washington or to file the anti-code petition, which was signed by some 3,000 Chicagoans. However, they did go to Washington on other business. They issued the following statement:

"The insurance code is not being discussed seriously in the east at this time. Separation has jumped into the limelight and is the all absorbing topic. If, by chance, the code should be resur-rected, we shall be on hand to oppose it. We felt it unnecessary to file the petitions of protest."

TO AGENTS WHO WOULD LIKE TO BE LEADERS

The next two years are going to be vital ones for every local agent. New problems must be met and solved. New competition must be studied and conquered.

To progressive local agents we offer a new booklet called "Planned Progress*". It describes a basic selling plan for today's agent to win today's business. It has been proven in actual agency operation. One agency said, "We have other good companies in our office but none have offered us so concrete a plan as you provide." Another: "Your company offers more to an agent than any other we know of, or have ever heard of." And still another: "There can be no question but that if an agency will 'follow through' on the plan suggested, wonderful results will follow."

If you feel that you cannot force yourself to follow out a definite plan that will result in increased premium we suggest you do not send for "Planned Progress*". But if you are positive that with the right plan you could show the dust to your competitors we urge you to fill in the coupon and mail it today.

Home Office Representative of the Pearl Tells Something About Its Relationships

CINCINNATI, April 4.—J. F. Guinness, home office representative of the Pearl Assurance, who has been in this city since it purchased the Pure Oil Company interests in the Eureka-Security Fire & Marine, stated this week that evidently some Eureka-Security agents are still in doubt as to whether the company is to continue its identity and operate as it has in the past. He reaffirmed the statement that was given reaffirmed the statement that was given out at the time of the purchase stating that the Pearl in purchasing the Eureka-Security Fire & Marine desired to secure an American company and that it had no intention whatever of absorbing the Eureka-Security or modifying its procedure except in some minor items. The Eureka-Security, he added, will continue just as it is, the Pearl being attracted to it by its agency plant and management.

No Financial Interest

There being some doubt as to whether the Pearl had any financial interest in the Monarch Fire of Cleveland, Mr. Guinness clarified that point by saying that it had no financial interest whatever in the Monarch Fire. He did say that it had a close reinsurance arrange-ment, the Pearl assuming up to four times the Monarch net line if desirable. Furthermore the Monarch Fire acts as general agent for the Pearl Assurance in central western territory. Mr. Guin-ness said that the Pearl management had every confidence in President Ralph Rawlings and his associates in their conduct of the Monarch.

Gradually Extending Operations

Mr. Guinness said that the Pearl is gradually extending its operations throughout the country. It started first in the largest cities and it is now appointing more and more agents outside of the metropolitan centers.

Mr. Guinness stated that many agents are using reports about the Pearl to get their companies to cut rates and deviate in other ways. He said in this way the Pearl is placed in an unjustified position. He said that after the Pearl acquired the Eureka-Security F. & M. immediately reports started that certain agents of the latter company were cutting rates. Mr. Guinnes asserted that he instituted an investigation at once and discovered the rumors were Mr. Guinness stated that many agents at once and discovered the rumors were

Reaffirms Policy Sea Writing Fire Insurance

Expands Operations in This Country Under Management of Chubb & Son of New York

NEW YORK, April 4.—The Sea of Liverpool, which has been writing ocean and inland marine lines in this country since 1876, has entered the fire field as well, and henceforward will develop that division of underwriting as well as its marine business.

It will be a running mate of the Fedrt will be a running mate of the Federal of Jersey City. Chubb & Son of this city are United States managers of the Sea and leading executives of the Federal. The immediate direction of the fire branch is in charge of A. H. Witthohn, who joined the staff of the Chubb organization early this year after a long and successful training in the

Licensed in 17 States

Established in 1875 and entered here 12 months later, the United States branch of the Sea reported total assets branch of the Sea reported total assets at the close of 1933 of $2,747,286, with policyholders' surplus $1,769,938. It is licensed in Alabama, Arkansas, California, Illinois, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Texas as well as New York.

While observing tariff rates and regarders.

While observing tariff rates and reg ulation commissions, neither the Federal nor the Sea are organization companies. A strong effort is being made to induce both to join the Southeastern Underwriters Association, though with what result remains to be seen. About the only fire companies operating in the south outside the governing association are the Buffalo, Merchants of New York and Pearl Assurance.

M. W. Conrad, who has operated an agency there and recently in charge of the Emmerling Insurance Agency, Watertown, Wis., has purchased that agency. Mrs. C. E. Emmerling retains an interest for the present.

Insurer Knew of Still. But Policy Is Invalid

Despite the fact that an insurer knows of the existence of a still on the insured property at the time it issued the policy, the as-sured cannot recover in the event of loss, according to the Minne-sota supreme court in Vos vs. Albany Mutual Fire. Such a policy, the court held, is void as against public policy. The contract furthers directly the illegal manufacture of alcoholic liquors and therefore furthers crime it-self, the court asserted.

Selling Complete Cover Emphasized by C. V. Nipp

SOUTH BEND, IND., April 4.— An agent's duty to the assured is not fulfilled unless he presents all the forms of coverage that should go with his hazards, said C. V. Nipp, Indianapolis, America Fore state agent, in a talk to the South Bend-Mishawaka Insurance Exchange on the insurance triumvirate—the assured, the agent and the company.

ance Exchange on the insurance triumvirate—the assured, the agent and the company.

The agent is not doing a householder full justice, he said, if he writes his dwelling house and household goods, and does not impress upon him the necessity of an inventory of his personal property and the advisability of his carrying householder's liability, accident and burglary insurance, rents and supplemental contract.

"Don't neglect to inform him of all these services," said Mr. Nipp. "If it is his business place, you should have a suggestion for all the lines of insurance applicable to his business. There is so much you are neglecting today in the numerous lines of insurance that if presented to your client, would be accepted and appreciated. I know an agency which delivers nearly every dwelling house policy with full supplemental contract, including rents.

"It is simply a matter of salesmanship, knowing the different lines and presenting them intelligently. Your obligation continues through the full term of the contract whether it is an assignment of interest, change of location or loss. Those agents who watch all of these situations, build up the most successful and enduring agencies."

Discuss the Insurance Code

Discuss the Insurance Code

TOLEDO, April 4.—H. S. Boynton, president of the Toledo Association of Insurance Agents, conferred with C. C. Teipel, president of the Toledo Real Estate Board, this week concerning the workings of the insurance code. Mr. Boynton said the two groups will work in complete accord. He said it was important that the codes of the real estate dealers and insurance men be understood perfectly by both. There are 345 employes in the offices of members of the Toledo Association of Insurance Agents, Mr. Boynton said, who will be affected by the code.

New Measures Disappointing

Surety Association of Chicago Is Told Legislation Affecting Public Official Bonds Is Disappointing

Members of the Surety Association of Chicago, at a luncheon Tuesday, were advised by President Elmer Anderson that legislation which has been passed in Illinois or is in the hopper has not resulted in making any more attractive than in the past the writing of public official bonds there.

One measure has passed and has been signed by the governor. Under that bill, the principal and sureties are relieved of depository liability under a town or district collector's bond, provided the depository has been approved by the county board or supervisor and town clerk. That same bill also relieves the surety, but not the principal, of depository liability under county collectors' bonds, provided the depository has been approved.

lectors' bonds, provided the depository has been approved.

Surety people object to the clause relieving the principal of depository liability and also object to the proviso that the depository must be approved.

A recent opinion of the Illinois attorney general was read at the Surety Association meeting on the question of whether license bonds under the Illinois alcoholic liquor act are forfeiture bonds. whether license bonds under the Illinois alcoholic liquor act are forfeiture bonds. The attorney general held that, although the statute was ambiguously worded, they are not forfeiture bonds, but that in order to recover under the bonds, proper suit must be brought in court for any unpaid fees and other items of included the second that the second

A humorous resolution was adopted congratulating John Daly of the Royal Indemnity upon the birth of a son.

Kansas Treasurer Is Bonded

Half Million Cover Placed Through Holmes Meade—Public to Pay for Burglary Cover

TOPEKA, KAN., April 4.—Holmes Meade, president of the Meade Investment Company, Topeka, has placed the $500,000 bond covering J. J. Rhodes, newly appointed state treasurer, through the following agents and companies: I. J. Talbott, Kansas City, Kan., in the National Surety Corporation; Frank Harris, Harris-Burns & Co., Wichita, Continental Casualty; J. M. Brier, Brier Insurance Agency, Topeka, Western Casualty & Surety, and the Meade Investment Co., Glens Falls Indemnity.

There was some difficulty in obtaining the surety bond for the treasurer because of the prospective huge losses which the state claims against the three companies which wrote two bonds for Tom Boyd, former state treasurer.

PAY FOR BURGLARY COVER

Roland Boynton, Kansas attorney-general, has advised county treasurers that the counties may take out insurance for public funds in their possession. Some time ago the attorney-general ruled that the offices of the county treasurers must be kept open during ordinary business hours of each community and that they cannot close when the banks close. The result is that the

F. Robertson Jones in Ohio Talk Opposes U. S. Control

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—Expressing confidence in the ability of the casualty and surety business to blaze a new trail through the uncertainties that new trail through the uncertainties that have arisen in connection with the establishment of the NRA, F. Robertson Jones, general manager Association of Casualty & Surety Executives, addressed the Ohio Association of Casualty & Surety Managers at its monthly meeting in Columbus Tuesday. About 150 persons attended the meeting, including several state officials. Mr. Jones said that he was not opposed to the new deal and that he felt that some of the experiments that are being tried are necessary. However, he opposed any effort to establish federal supervision of insurance, declaring that this was the insurance, declaring that this was the function of the states. He urged cooperation between companies and agents in working out the new problems that have arisen and in neeping the federal government out of insurance business.

Crooked Claim Ring Broken Up by Two Men's Conviction

A crooked accident and health claim gang in Chicago has been put out of business by Redfield & McGurk, Chi-cago managers Mutual Benefit Health & Accident and United Benefit Life, after Accident and United Benefit Life, after a long investigation, threats of violence against members of the agency and the filing of a $100,000 libel suit by an attorney. Mark Gavranovic, former agent, and Tony Bilisko were convicted last week on a criminal charge arising from their having secured an accident policy from the Mutual Benefit and $600 settlement for a broken jaw of the policyholder. The accident actually occ policyholder. The accident actually oc-cured several days before the policy was secured and was due to a fight, the assured testified.

According to him, there was a crooked setup in a Croatian colony in the south part of Chicago which has been responsible for many disability claims against a number of companies. The Mutual Benefit had 18 total and permanent disability claims, most of them on policies written by Gavranovic.

Two Receivers for Madison; Court Urges Further Probe

INDIANAPOLIS, April 4.—A second receiver has been appointed for the Madison Insurance Company, H. K. Bachelder of the Indianapolis law firm of Bachelder & Bachelder, in Marion county superior court. Suit under which had been presented to show that the se-had been presented to show that the securities had been removed by B. A. Murrell, former president.

The plaintiffs in the Indianapolis suit also charged that 60 percent of the amount received for signing beer bonds was distributed to agents as commission and that only 40 percent actually went into the treasury of the company. The special judge charged H. C. Baldwin, general agent and a director of the company, was evading questions.

"You are a director of this company," the court said, "and yet you don't seem to know what is going on. It seems to me the company has violated about every law that it was possible for it to violate."

Kansas City Claim Men Elect

R. G. Clemmer, Travelers, Chosen Pres ident-Plan Closer Cooperation With Medical Society There

KANSAS CITY, MO., April 4.—R. G. Clemmer, Travelers, was elected president of the Kansas City Claim

president of the Kansas City Claim Men's Association at its meeting Monday. Frank Stiles, Maryland Casualty, was elected vice-president, and Douglas Strip of the law firm of Morrison-Nugent-Wylder & Berger, secretary.

The association adopted a new constitution designed further to restrict membership. Membership now is limited to those whose sole duty is the handling of claims for defendant companies. Heretofore, attorneys representing plaintiffs occasionally became members of the organization.

ing plaintiffs occasionally became members of the organization.

Several new activities are being planned. One of these, according to Mr. Clemmer, is the closer association with the Jackson County Medical Society. An effort will be made to have the society and the association each appoint a committee to work together on complaints and problems, with the view of eventually forming one committee made up of members from both committees. This will be in the nature of an arbitration board to handle any differences that might arise and to solve mutual problems. It is hoped that closer association of these two groups will aid claim men the better to defend will aid claim men the better to defend themselves in fraudulent cases.

Membership includes representation from all but straight life insurance interests. Accident and health companies and agencies take active part, usually through their claim or legal representatives. The association, three years old, expects to develop an organization of

Iowa Agents Support Clark Western Companies' Roundup

Grievance Committee of State Association to Investigate Illegal Practices and Report to Commissioner

DES MOINES, April 4.—Support for Commissioner Clark in his drive to rid the state of rebating and discrimination in the writing of insurance, was pledged this week by the Iowa Association of this week by the Iowa Association of Insurance Agents.

S. D. Butters, chairman of the grievance committee of the association, said the committee would investigate all complaints of rebating and other illegal practices and gather evidence in all cases which appear to warrant prosecution. This data will be given to the attorney general for further action.

Mr. Clark stated that of 25,000 agents in Iowa, the greater portion were opposed to rebating, but that some were forced into the practice by a few who split commissions and dealt in unfair competition during the depression.

Attorney General's Opinion

In view of the ruling by Commissioner Clark that the anti-discrimination law of Iowa covers all branches of the insurance business and not merely life, accident and health and casualty, there is interest in the opinion of the attorney general of that state, upon which Clark's ruling is based.

The statute as originally passed and as amended applies to life, casualty, health

The attorney general said the statute, because of amendments, is unhappily worded, since the original statements therein pertaining to life insurance and the equal expectancy of life can have no application to other lines of insur-

The attorney general concludes that The attorney general concludes that the legislature, in using the words "casualty insurance" intended to use it in its broadest sense to include all kinds of insurance, including suretyship contracts. The legislature has, apparently, he said, recognized suretyship contracts as contracts of insurance. The attorney general therefore concludes that the antidiscrimination section applies to all forms of insurance and that all discriminations and distinctions, including rebates, special favors, special benefits, valuable considerations or inducements not specified in the policy are prohibited.

Mentions Outlaw Practices

Mentions Outlaw Practices

Mr. Clark identified some of the practices, which, he said, the anti-discrimination ruling will outlaw. Among them is the giving of special advantages to the assured on the part of the agent, such as making loans without interest to as making loans without interest to finance initial premiums; splitting com-mission fees with the assured and the charging of unequal premiums for fire, accident and auto policies covering properties of about equal value. He mentioned, for instance, the writing of autoinsurance at different premiums for cars of the same make, same year and approximately same condition.

Penalties for violation of the new rul-ing will be a maximum of $500 fine and the suspension of agent or company's license for three years or revocation of agent's license or cancellation of the company's license.

Revise Building Codes

ST. PAUL, April 4.—Several Minnesota cities are revising their building codes in the interest of better fire protection. Duluth is amending its code to provide electrical wiring specifications that are satisfactory to the companies. Minneapolis is adopting a revised roof-ing code that is expected to lessen the fire hazard. Waseca's council has be-fore it an ordinance which prohibits the use of wood shingles on new houses or in extensive repairs of old buildings.

Quits Loan Association Hookup

A. W. Miller, whose agency in Lincoln, Neb., has for many years been operated in connection with the Union Savings & Loan Association, has with-Savings & Loan Association, has withdrawn from that connection, resigned as head of the savings association, and opened offices at 1130 N street. Mr. Miller started 41 years ago with the agency of the Queen and still represents it along with eight other companies, five of which he has had for over 25 years. Examine School Coverage

SOUTH BEND, IND., April 4.—An examination of the coverage on all school property here, to determine the character and responsibility of the companies involved, has been under way during the current week by a commit-tee from the South Bend-Mishawaka Insurance Exchange. The inquiry is made annually at the request of the school board of the city.

Easter Snowstorm Welcomed

ST. PAUL, April 4.—An Easter week snowstorm was worth the proverbial "million dollars" to fire companies doing business in Minnesota. An almost snow-less winter had left the entire country-side like hinder and grapes for side like tinder and grass fires were be-coming a serious hazard in practically every community in the lower half of the state. Fire department calls have been numerous the past month and the ma-jority of them were to check grass fires that threatened to reach nearby build-

Advocate State Insurance

MINNEAPOLIS, April 4.—The state of Minnesota would control and operate all forms of insurance under the program advanced in the farmer-labor platform adopted at its annual conven-tion. The party is headed by Governor Floyd Olson.

New Rules in Many States

The new rules, which were first introduced in Illinois, providing for increased credit for application of the coinsurance clause, authorizing an 80 percent use and occupancy coinsurance clause, reducing the rate for the 100 percent U&O coinsurance form and reducing the combined tornado-hail rate on contents, became effective in Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota, manufacturing $71,815, barns $8,034 and miscellaneous $59,225.

There were 32 fires in sprinklered risks in Hamilton county. The insurance loss on buildings was $1,007 and on conin a tornado policy does not apply in that state, there was no change in the tornado rules, except that the tornado rates on lumber yards were reduced from 40 cents to 30 cents.

In Ohio, likewise, the combined tor-nado-hail coverage is not mandatory and there was no change in the tornado rates in that state.

Recommend Increased Coverage

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., April 4. Following a survey of insurance on municipal property here, a special committee of the city commission has recommended changes which would bring about a net increase of $98,000 in the about a net increase of $95,000 in the fire coverage. An increase of $95,000 in coverage on the city hall, found to be insured for only $5,000, was recommended. Commissioner Quick attacked several features of the report, particularly the recommended increases. He contended the city hall is virtually fire proof and $5,000 coverage is sufficient. proof and $5,000 coverage is sufficient. The committee, however, considered the low rate for a coinsurance plan warranted the slight additional expenditure in view of greatly broadened protection.

Ætna's 1934 Automobile Show

Acting upon the belief that there is unusual interest in the new 1934 automobiles, and that the purchaser of a new car is a good prospect for the sale of automobile insurance, the Ætna has prepared a compact yet comprehensive composite catalog showing every American-made car. Its 72 pages contain photographs and brief specifications of 151 models introduced this year by the thirty-one manufacturers.

This authentic, informative booklet is the cornerstone of a forward-looking, co-operative campaign enthusiastically endorsed by the automobile industry and already acclaimed by Ætna agents as one of the most constructive ideas yet developed to promote good will and automobile insurance sales.

Supporting units in this campaign designed to stimulate new business include "copy" for letters to prospects and dealers, return mailing cards, window display suggestions and material, newspaper releases and newspaper advertising, motion picture "trailers" and radio announcements. Agents who follow out this unique advertising and sales plan will undoubtedly find it productive of very tangible results.

Any agent or broker who has not yet seen this booklet, may have a sample copy upon request.

How Demoralization Is Caused

S. O. Smith at Louisiana Meeting Says

Cooperators are Stampeded by

the Minority Fringe

The responsible, cooperating companies and agents of the same type constitute a majority interest in the insurance business and if they pull together, the evils of the business can be eradicated. This statement was made by S. O. Smith of Gainesville, Ga., member executive committee National Association of Insurance Agents, at the meeting of the Louisiana Insurance Society in Shreveport.

Violence is being done to well known laws and rules of sound underwriting, and the final victim of excess commissions and rate cutting is the buyer. Courage is lacking, he said, when the orthodox companies and their agents, pleading self-defense and self-preservation, descend to reprisal and retaliation, employing practices that disturb public confidence. The effect of this will be, Mr. Fischer thinks, to protect the better class of general agents and straighten out those trying to chisel in on the business that rightfully can be written only by licensed. fully can be written only by licensed local agents.

Vacancy Clause Construed Where Refugees Are Tenants

The Kentucky court of appeals has held in Home vs. Steinberg that occupancy of a dwelling for three days by refugees from a flood, during a lengthy period of vacancy otherwise, served to period of vacancy clause in the policy from applying. The house was not oc-cupied from Jan. 18, 1932, to the time of the fire, March 31 of that year, except for the three days. Refugees from the flood were moved into the dwelling with the owner's consent and the refu-gees later paid 50 cents rent for the three days.

The higher court held that the refugees were tenants and not wayfarers or trespassers. It is immaterial whether the rent was paid at all. Failure of the tenant to pay his landlord cannot possibly increase the risk.

Cup for Best Attendance at Texas Agents' Convention

DALLAS, April 4.—The Arthur A. Everts Company of Dallas has donated Everts Company of Dallas has donated a cup to be awarded to the local board which makes the best attendance showing at the Dallas convention of the Texas Association of Insurance Agents, May 24-25. The number of agents registered from a city will be multiplied by the number of miles from that city to Dallas to determine the winner. The cup becomes the permanent property of the winning exchange.

W. H. Bennett, secretary National Association of Insurance Agents, will represent that organization. It is expected large delegations of agents from Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma will attend. The agents' code will be one of the subjects discussed. Rebating, brokers, cut-rate competition and other "thorns in the side of the business" be considered.

Improvement Is Needed in Little Rock Water Supply

In a supplemental report on Little Rock, the National Board states the most needed improvement in the water supply is the replacing of two-inch mains with fire protection mains in sections now closely built up and the laying of larger mains in the northeastern sec-tion, where large values in the wholesale districts are inadequately protected.

Average Loss Per Capita

The fire department, which was previously reported as being seriously undermanned, is now deficient in chief officers and captains, as well as in hosemen. With the curtailed force, the making of building inspections has been distributed which probably accounts for continued, which probably accounts for the increase in fires in the business district during the past year and a half.

Steps must be taken to remedy this condition and to place the entire company at headquarters back into service.

Fire alarm boxes should be installed in the mercantile district and old, unreliable indicators at stations 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 should be replaced.

The average loss per capita for the past five years was $4.77, as compared with $5.08 for the five-year period ending in 1930. In North Little Rock, the water supply is mainly adequate, but consideration should be given toward improving the arterial system and installing a duplicate supply main from the Little Rock System.

The addition of a new engine in the The addition of a new engine in the fire department leaves the department only moderately deficient in pumping capacity. A fire alarm telegraph system is most necessary and consideration is being given to the application of a loan through the PWA for this purpose. The telephone exchange now supplying North Little Rock is located across the river in Little Rock and frequently telephone service is interrupted by cable phone service is interrupted by cable trouble. There is need for an up-to-date building ordinance to be enforced by a city electrician.

The average loss per capita for the past five years was $2.95 as compared with $4.16 for the five-year period end-

Opposes Zoning Amendments

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 4.—Action by the city council on proposed amendments to the city zoning ordinance, until after a thorough investigation and study of conditions, is discouraged by Manager C. T. Ingals of the Oklahoma Inspection Burgery. The the Oklahoma Inspection Bureau. The proposed amendments would permit construction of "semi-fire-proof buildconstruction of "semi-fire-proof build-ings" in large blocks where cheap con-struction is now prohibited, placing them in the second district, where them in the second district, whe building restrictions are more lenient.

The change would not only involve higher insurance rates but would tend to change the classification of the city, he warns, adding that the question hinges on the definition of a "semi-fire-proof building." He suggests however, that the city building ordinances might that the city building ordinances might be advantageously modified. The area south of California avenue was indicated as a "very vulnerable" district for a serious conflagration.

Must Increase Georgia Deposits

ATLANTA, April 4.-The Georgia ATLANTA, April 4.—The Georgia department announces that it will shortly call on the 200 fire companies doing business in Georgia for an additional deposit of $3,000,000 in securities for the protection of policyholders.

The commission that recently rewrote the Georgia code of 1910 ruled that the present requirement of $10,000 from each company is the result of a typographical error and that the law actually requires each company to post $25,000 in bonds. The attorney general has upheld that ruling. However, it will not be put into effect until the new code has been printed and made effective, which will be about Sept. 1.

After Mississippi Commission

JACKSON, MISS., April 4.—Attacking the Mississippi fire insurance rating commission as "the sweetest sugar plum of political patronage," the lower house of the legislature has passed a bill to cut the salaries of the three members from $3,600 to $1,500 annually and to place additional duties on Commissioner G. D. Riley, whose salary of $3,100 would be increased $750. Work of the commission would be reduced to that f a board of review.

Expenses of the commission, payable out of an assessment against fire com-panies, have averaged $20,000 per year and the bill would reduce this to $10,-

Montana Warns of Weakness of "Mail Order" Insurance

Commissioner Holmes of Montana is circulating an anti-mail order insurance communication, which was prepared by Actuary J. D. Kelley of the Montana department. The statement was predepartment. The statement was prepared because of many inquiries to the department about the Postal Life & Casualty of Kansas City, Mo. If the citizen buys insurance from a mail order concern, he must act on his own judgment at his own risk. The insurance department is powerless to assert its upperviously powers in an equitable adsupervisory powers in an equitable adjustment of any disputed question. A Justment or any disputed question. A claimant must prosecute any action against the company in the state of domicile of the company.

The letter points out that the mail order insurer is in a position to force bargain compromises, because of the costliness of any procedure against it.

The communication points out that costliness of any procedure against it.

The communication points out that the mail order companies emphasize the low cost of their protection. Although the initial cost may be lower, the ultimate cost may be greatly in excess of insurance in authorized companies because of the danger of the insurer taking advantage of the assured's inability to settle the claim by litigation.

The fact is cited that the general fund of Montana is annually enriched by about $300,000 through premium tax collections. If all insurers would pull out lections. If all insurers would pull out of the state and conduct their business by mail, taxpayers would be burdened with an additional $300,000 item.

During the last few years the service facilities of Rule & Sons and Cosgrove & Co. have been combined in northern California and Washington.

The office of Cosgrove & Co. for southern California will be located in the quarters formerly occupied by Rule & Sons in the Pacific Finance building.

Company Executives on Coast

Among the prominent company officials visiting San Francisco and California the past week were Victor Roth, president Security of New Haven; James Wyper, vice-president Hartford Fire; J. C. Stoddart, vice-president New York Underwriters; R. D. Safford, superintendent of agencies Travelers Fire, and R. R. Martin, United States Manager of the Atlas.

Veteran Coast Adjuster Dies

E. J. Jolly, 76, one of the old-timers in the independent adjusting field in San Francisco, active in that sphere since 1906, died at his home in Oakland, Cal. He had been active in his business until just a few weeks ago, when his heart forced a partial retirement from business. forced a partial retirement from business. Mr. Jolly did most of the adjusting for the "non-board" companies in northern California. His son, who has been associated with him for a number of years, will continue the business.

Won't Renew Licenses

Commissioner Holmes of Montana states that the department will refuse to issue renewal licenses to fire companies which receive reinsurance from or cede reinsurance to non-admitted companies.

Lloyd Brandt Special Agent

W. B. Brandt & Co. has appointed Lloyd L. Brandt special agent for the southern California service office in Los Angeles, under the management of C. B. Moss. He had two years of training with Lloyds in London, later serving as manager of the inland marine department of the Pacific National Fire and with the Portland agency of Durham & Bates.

Issues Combined Policy

On the Pacific Coast the Ohio Eastern Underwriters policy is being issued, a combination of the Monarch Fire and Eureka Security Fire & Marine. The General Agencies of New York, Inc., 56 Sansome street, San Francisco, is acting as general agent there and at 208 West Eighth street, Los Angeles.

Mahoney Out for Governor

Willis E. Mahoney, mayor of Klamath Falls, Ore., and a well-known local agent of that city has become a candidate for governor of Oregon.

R. G. Duniway and W. F. Leary have announced their candidacy for the Oregon legislature. Mr. Duniway was formerly with the sprinkler department of the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau, and now conducts a Portland local agency. Mr. Leary is president of the local agency of Newland & Co., Portland. and formerly was northwest speland, and formerly was northwest spe-cial agent of the Royal Indemnity and later of the Constitution Indemnity.

Pacific Coast Notes

W. H. Creed, 48, one of San Francisco's leading insurance brokers, prominent in civic and social circles, was killed there when struck by an automobile while he was crossing a street.

Miles York of the home office marine underwriting department of the Fireman's Fund, is chairman of the committee of the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce which is staging a traffic safety educational week May 28-June 3.

Staff Committee Ends Work

National Automobile Underwriters Association Advisory Committees Have Been Furnished a Report

NEW YORK, April 4.—The staff committee of the National Automobile Underwriters Association after being in session here the greater part of last week, forwarded to the advisory committees of the four regional jurisdictions the report of its labors for review. Such changes as may finally be agreed upon for 1934 will be printed in loose leaf form for insertion in existing manuals. The manufacture of cars has been standardized to such extent in recent years, that rate changes are far less numerous than formerly, are far less numerous than formerly, and no need exists for issuing complete new manual editions, effecting savings thereby not alone in printing costs but materially simplifying the labor of agents when making rate quotations.

New Problems in New Relief Plan

Compensation Question Becomes Even More Confused as CWA Is Terminated

RESPONSIBILITY SHIFTED

States Are Expected to Set Up Self-Insurance Plans-Legal Status of Worker in Doubt

WASHINGTON, April 4.-Demobilization of the federal civil works program on March 31 brought to an end much of the government's relief employment and also eliminated much of its responsibility for compensation insur-

While the government has discontinued this effort, not all of the men who were on the civil works program are thrown out of employment, since, it is estimated, about 2,000,000 workers, mostly in cities, will be transferred to construction projects under the new reprogram.

The new program will be chiefly work relief, with the responsibility placed on states, cities and counties, but financed largely by federal funds, of which approximately $600,000,000 remains.

Compensation Responsibility

With the transfer of activities from the federal government to the lesser political units, the responsibility for workmen's compensation also will shift to the states, since these men no longer will be on the federal payroll.

Just how much work the federal relief program has thrown upon the federal employes compensation commission is not known and probably will not be known for some time since many of the cases involving compensation were settled in the field and reports have not yet been transmitted to Washington.

It is understood, however, that the number of cases will mount into the thousands, although in view of the millions of men employed the percentage is said to be very small, due largely to the fact that on many projects a minimum of machinery was used and a large part of the work was of a low-hazard nature. There was, further, none of the nature. There was, further, none of the demand for speed which is experienced in commercial prosecution of works of this nature.

PROBLEM GREATLY CONFUSED

The transfer of relief work back to The transfer of reliet work back to the various states confounds an already confused problem as to compensation coverage on relief workers. The federal government now sheds all compensation liability, although a certain amount of federal funds are contributed to those states, which raise the money on their own initiative. The states in turn disown initiative. The states in turn distribute this money for projects of local

Only One Company Licensed | to Write Liquor Law Cover

ILLINOIS SITUATION GIVEN

Equity Mutual of Kansas City Authorized-Forms of Other Companies Not Approved

The Illinois insurance department advises inquirers that the Equity Mutual of Kansas City, one of the Bruce Dod-son companies, which was organized last year, has been licensed in Illinois to write coverages under the new Illinois liquor control act. The department states that so far as it knows the Equity Mutual is the only company li-censed for this purpose.

The Dobry Insurance Agency, organized by Harry H. Dobry, formerly a Chicago broker, has been appointed by the Equity Mutual as exclusive representative in Cook county. He is setting up headquarters in A-730 Insurance Exchange Chicago.

ance Exchange, Chicago.

The few companies which had been selling policies to cover the liquor dealers and owners' liability in Illinois have suspended the issuance of these contracts and canceled the ones that were placed, as a result of a request on the part of the Illinois insurance depart-ment that such policies not be issued until department approval has been obtained. It is understood the Illinois derained. It is understood the limios department is preparing an approved form. The Builders & Manufacturers Mutual Casualty of Chicago and the Professional Underwriters of Grand Rapids had started to write the coverage.

What is probably the first action under the liquor law has been instituted by Miss Eva Gentry against the Brevoort hotel, Chicago. Alleging she was injured when pushed against the bar by two drunken brawlers, she seeks $50,000 damages.

One of the casualty companies is contemplating the filing of an action to test the practical effects of the act.

This company has become liable under a compensation policy for injury suffered by a man when he was struck by an automobile while standing on a safety island. The driver of the car had been drinking and the company is considering taking subrogation action against the dealer who sold the liquor and the owner of the premises on which the dealer is a tenant.

Bureau Considers Problem

A meeting of the governing commit-tee of the National Bureau of Casualty & Surety Underwriters is scheduled this week to consider the question of liability insurance under the Illinois liquor law. Some of the larger companies, which have been studying the panies, which have been studying the question, are taking some risks under binder, with the understanding that the rate will be that which is promulgated by the bureau. These binders are issued only in behalf of large assured, who are owners or trustees of a group of properties, which are being leased to those who sell liquor, and cover only the personal injury and property damage features and not loss of support.

Lloyds' Competition for Bank Business Is Keener

WHOLESALE DRIVE FOR RISKS

London Underwriters Are Consolidating Interests of Assured Banks Even Where Relationship Is Remote

In competing with London Lloyds for bank fidelity business, the American companies find themselves at a disadvantage because of their inability to con-solidate the interests of institutions that are not actually allied in order to make one coverage and one premium. Lloyds have been thus consolidating institutions in a manner which might be compared to the fictitious fleet in the automobile insurance field. The relationship of a good many of these banks that have been consolidated for purposes of fidelity insurance has been exceedingly remote for the most part for the most part.

There must be common ownership of institutions in order to permit the American companies to write a single bond, but London Lloyds freely are treating two or more exposures as one.

Lloyds' Competition Felt

The competition of London Lloyds is being felt more and more in this class of business in the smaller places. Lloyds is making a big drive for this business, especially through a Chicago agency. The premium is usually from $150 to $300 less than that quoted by the American companies and there is an additional saving when the interests of a number of banks in a city or several cities are consolidated.

consolidated.

Some surety people feel that London Lloyds are likely to run into heavy weather in connection with this business, because of the probability of robbery losses. One theory is that the American agencies of Lloyds, which are tacking this business. American agencies of Lloyds, which are pushing this business, are opening wide the throttle and piling up an immense amount of liability, the extent of which the real underwriters do not realize. Dishonesty losses among the banks of very small places are not frequent, but the robbery hazard is great. Most of the American companies, in handling bankers' blanket bonds for the smaller banks, underwrite the business just as banks, underwrite the business just as they would if the application were for they would if the application were for straight robbery insurance.

The tactics of London Lloyds in campaigning for bank fidelity business on a widespread scale differs from their usual practice in this country. In the past Lloyds have sought their business here and there without stirring up the animals. Now, apparently, Lloyds have decided to raid the business of American companies in a systematic and wholesale companies in a systematic and wholesale

Guaranty of Bonds Would Be Gambling

Surety Men See No Opportunity Under Federal Security Act

LIABILITY IS TOO GREAT

Companies Might Guarantee Validity of State and Municipal Bonds-Would Reduce Resistance

NEW YORK, April 4.-Surety men are not in accord with the suggestion advanced by Hartwell Cabell, an attorney of this city, in a recent address before the Insurance Society of New York, that the assumption of liability placed upon sponsors of security propositions under the terms of the new federal act, offers a field for insurance carriers. Obviously, it is pointed out, the subject is not one for surety companies, in that under bonds written by the latindemnity is always ter indemnity is always required, whereas in supplying protection along the lines suggested by Mr. Cabell the liability would be carried wholly by the required.

Under the provisions of the securities act as now in force, to quote Mr. Ca-bell, "any person who sells a security by the use of any means or instruments of transportation in interstate commerce or of the mails, by means of a pros-pectus or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits the statement of a material fact, is liable in damages to the pur-chasers," etc.

Would Be a Gamble

To grant coverage on lines as broad as those set forth in the act would not be insurance, surety men maintain. It would be a blind gamble.

A more acceptable and practical field for indemnity, it is suggested, would be guaranteeing of the validity of state, county or municipal bonds, offerings of which run into the millions of dollars every year. In selling these to the investing public, bond dealers, after reciting the salient factors in connection with the community bonded, usually state that while the information given is deemed to be strictly correct, it is not guaranteed. Such risk, if any, as exists, must be assumed by purchasers of the obligations. which run into the millions of dollars

Would Reduce Resistance

Though not frequently, a bond issue is sometimes found to be invalid for one reason or another, and the holders are put to some expense as well as suffering mental anxiety, before the revealed error is corrected. If, in their security offerings, brokers could assure prospective purchasers that the validity of the bonds was guaranteed by a reof the bonds was guaranteed by a re-sponsible surety corporation, sales re-sistance would be largely reduced, while (CONTINUED ON PAGE 38)

New Acquisition Cost Deal on Coast Is Now Approved

PROVISIONS ARE OUTLINED

Permanent Arbitrator Will Enforce New Rules for Violation of Which Penalties Are Specified

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.-Provisions of the new rules and regulations governing the casualty business by comgoverning the casualty business by com-panies subscribing to the California cas-ualty acquisition and agency cost con-ference, as released by Joy Lichten-stein, chairman, are as follows: All fire companies having no direct casualty running mate but issuing a combination policy with one of the sub-

Subscribing companies, and this includes all but six of the companies doing a nation-wide business, may maintain branch offices or general agencies in eight of the ten listed cities of more than 50,000 population. These cities are San Francisco, Los Angeles (where two such representatives may be maintained), Long Beach, Pasadena, San Diego, Glendale, Sacramento, Oakland, Fresno and San Jose. The com-panies may have a general agency or a branch office, but not both, in any eight of these cities.

Provision for Relief

To meet the situation created by the existence of a number of general agencies in cities and towns not qualifying under the above list, provision for relief is included. By decision of an organization zation arbitrator, who will check all such agencies, each company having such general agencies and which have sucn general agencies and which have been operating since before Nov. 1, 1933, may retain one in northern California and one in the southern section. Such relief general agencies will expire if the agency merges or otherwise changes its present setup.

The new rules provide specific penalties for violation and enforcement will be handled by a permanent arbitrator who will be appointed when the reiewed program becomes effective about July 1.

Casualty men in San Francisco and Los Angeles have been free in their ex-pressions of approval and look for a new era in casualty business.

Complaints Are Filed That Code Has Been Violated

NEW YORK, April 4.-Intimation has been given to some of the offices here, especially head offices of insur-ance companies that through their organizations filed a general code under the NRA at Washington, that they may be investigated on the charge that they are in violation of the so-called apprentice group. An insurance company is permitted to pay lower wages to a young person entering its employ in the so-called apprentice class. However, after six months time this employe must receive the minimum monthly wage. The NRA people evidently have had The NRA people evidently have had filed with them complaints that certain companies are circumventing this provision in their code by shifting an employe who has been in an apprentice class nearly six months to another department, claiming that he is still an apprentice. Must Refer to Head Office Bonds on Sub-contractors

The experience on this class has been unsatisfactory, the theory of the Employers Liability being that the general contractor rarely requires a bond of a sub-contractor, if the sub is financially responsible and experienced. financially responsible and experienced. Therefore, the bonding company starts out with selection against it. The bond may be required because the sub-contractor is low in his bid or accepts a low figure from the general contractor or because the sub is considered weak financially by the general contractors. Furthermore, many general contractors have a reputation for bearing down on their subs. This is more likely to be true if the sub is bonded.

Agents Protest Awarding of Grand Rapids Boiler Cover

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., April 4.

—Policies of Ernest T. Conlon, city manager, in awarding of city boiler insurance have aroused something of a storm in local agency circles and the matter was the subject of a bitterly critical letter addressed to the administrative committee of the city commission last week by the Grand Rapids Association of Insurance Agents. In the letter, signed by James M. Crosby, Jr., president of the local board, Conlon was attacked for awarding the boiler business to Decker, Davies & Jean for $680 without bids. The commission immediately canceled the policy calling for matter was the subject of a bitterly mediately canceled the policy calling for bids from other agencies.

Much Interest Is Shown in Ohio Liquor Insurance

CHARGE OF MONOPOLY MADE

Local Agent Atkinson of Columbus, Friend of Governor, Gets Most of the Bond Business

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—The Ohio legislature, which has been trying to work out a tax program, found itself in a Jam Tuesday afternoon, with many members demanding that the general assembly quit and go home. While reports were current that an investigation of the placing of insurance and bonds in connection with the establishment of the state owned liquor stores, would be demanded, following the receipt of the report from Liquor Director Hughes, no definite program has been framed so far as known. If an investigation is attempted, it may be broadened to include many departments of the state government.

Ohio agents are much interested and Ohio agents are much interested and concerned in the monopoly which H. S. Atkinson, local agent at Columbus, enjoys in the handling of insurance for the state liquor department. Mr. Atkinson is a close, personal friend of Governor White and is chairman of the board of trustees of the Ohio State University. Inquiry develops that Mr. Atkinson has also been favored with bonds and other insurance in connection with other other insurance in connection with other state activities.

In January, he placed a $100,000 bond on the cashier for the motor vehicles bureau who carries the money from the Hartman building to the state treasurer's office and he placed two burglary policies of $100,000 each on two safes in the motor vehicles bureau offices. These bonds were written in the New York Casualty. The cash-ier's bond later was canceled.

Huth of Columbus for the Fidelity & Guaranty Fire while riot, explosion and civil commotion were taken out from the Philadelphia F. & M. through F. G. Director Hughes explained that competitive bids were not asked since the rate was set by the Ohio Inspection Bureau. Special rates, he said, were given

Non-Conference Companies in New Jersey Organizing

NEWARK, April 4.—Non-conference casualty and surety companies operating in New Jersey agreed to form an organization for their mutual benefit at a gathering of state managers in the Newark office of the Consolidated Indemnity, of which H. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Issues Rules and Procedure for Assignment of Uninsured Risks

TOPEKA, KAN., April 4.—The Kansas voluntary plan for covering rejected compensation risks is now in effect and is subscribed to by carriers writing approximately 90 percent of the Kansas premium volume, according to a report issued by the Kansas compensation rating bureau. The plan provides for the assignment of uninsured risks by the bureau to carriers subscribing and became effective coincident with the revised rates approved by Commissioner Hobbs.

All requests for assignment must emanate directly from the employer and not from the agent or company representative. The plan provides that the employer must make a reasonable attempt to obtain coverage, which is de-fined as being refused by four different

New Alabama Manual Is Filed

Revised to Take Care of Industrial Changes in the Last Ten Years

MONTGOMERY, ALA., April 4.—A proposal has been filed with the Alabama insurance department by the National Council on Compensation Insurance introducing a new workmen's compensation and employers' liability manual to replace the one that has been in effect in this state more than 10

The revised manual, according to W F. Roeber, general manager of the council, takes into consideration industrial changes which have taken place, eliminates inconsistencies, clarifies the rules and classifications and reduces unnecessary statistical and publication expense.

"Most of the changes in the rules and classifications are editorial and do not alter practices contemplated by the present manual," said Mr. Roeber.

"Likewise most of the classification eliminations and consolidations will have little or no effect on risk treatment either because the industries they represent do not exist, or are exceedingly unimportant in Alabama; or because the risks affected will be assigned to classifications which now carry the same rates as the classifications to which they heretofore have been assigned.

Few Changes in Rates

"Although the introduction of the revised manual does not contemplate any change in the general level of rates or a general revision of rates for individual classifications, there are of necessity a few cases where the consolidation of classifications or a change in coverage requires rate adjustment. Such coverage requires rate adjustment. Such changes as are proposed to become effective concurrent with the revised man-ual have been calculated upon exactly the same basis as underlies the current rates in Alabama. There is attached a memorandum showing these changes in detail."

The council asks that the new manual and accompanying changes take ual and accompanying changes take effect June 30 on new and renewal business. D. M. Munn, workmen's compensation clerk, stated the department is looking over the proposal carefully with a view to digesting its contents thoroughly before making an announcement regarding its approval. It has not been indicated whether a public hearing will be necessary before final action is taken.

Michigan Bill Vetoed

LANSING, MICH., April 4.—Governor Comstock has vetoed one of the measures designed to make procedural changes in connection with administration of the workmen's compensation law. The original bill was intended to permit the reopening of cases on peti-tion of either party within 20 days after approval of a final settlement, thus al-lowing the compensation commission of the department of labor and industry to modify, reverse, or correct its award. The governor held, however, that a provision included which would have removed the commission's right to fix attorneys' fees removed a valuable safeguard and also exceeded the scope of his message to the legislature on the subject. The lawmakers may not, in special session, consider any topic not specifically placed before them by the executive.

Occupational Disease Bill

NEW YORK, April 4.—As the result of its study of occupational diseases in the course of which a series of conferences was conducted with casualty underwriters and large labor employers, the state industrial commission is preparing a bill to amend the compensation law of New York, embodying its views as to what occupational diseases should be covered under workmen's compensaas to what occupational diseases should be covered under workmen's compensa-tion contracts. As the subject is one of wide interest, particularly in view of the demand that the indemnity be extended to embrace silicosis, the character of the measure when offered in the state leg-islature will be closely scanned.

Fund to Raise Teachers' Rates

SALT LAKE CITY, April 4.—0. F. McShane, Utah industrial commis-F. McShane, Utah industrial commissioner, has informed the state superintendent of public instruction that the state fund's rates for teachers must be increased. Under the law school districts must give their compensation insurance to the state fund. He said that in the past five years the fund has collected $27,233 in premiums for teachers' compensation insurance and paid out $54,281. If the present ratio continues $54,281. If the present ratio continues, he said, the premium will have to be raised from the present 11 cents per $100 of payroll to 31 cents.

West Virginia Ruling Given

West Virginia Ruling Given
The West Virginia department has issued a supplement to its ruling in January regarding the writing of automobile liability and property damage insurance. The ruling states that no endorsement or rider shall be attached to the West Virginia standard automobile property damage or liability policy which changes in any way the conditions, exclusions or agreements without the company first having submitted its endorsement or rider to the department for approval.

The Equity Mutual of Kansas City, Bruce Dodson, casualty carrier, has been admitted to Kansas.

federation bulletin states, "often complain that after complying with all the laws, rules and regulations of the various states and of the insurance de-partments thereof, and after paying a multiplicity of taxes and fees, they are compelled to compete with institutions like London Lloyds, which escape all fees and taxes except a 3 percent stamp tax upon its premiums which the assured pays, and which have no agents and are not subject to supervision and regulation by the various state insur-ance departments. This is your oppor-tunity to do something about it. There are strong and active interests opposing the bill. In the opinion of those watch-ing the situation in Washington, your assistance is greatly needed. The national government only can cope with

MASSACHUSETTS BILL GOES OVER

BOSTON, April 4.—The Massa-chusetts senate has voted "next annual session" on House bill 112 based on recommendations of Commissioner Brown, which was designed to prevent the operation of Lloyds and reciprocals in Massachusetts.

GLENS FALLS BULLETIN

The Glens Falls Indemnity in a bulletin to agents signed by S. B. Miller, manager of the bonding department, urges the local men to communicate with their senators and representatives in behalf of the Fletcher bill, directed against London Lloyds.

The bulletin calls attention to the fact that London Lloyds does not have any capital or surplus; that London Lloyds does not invest in any securities which does not invest in any securities which does not invest in any securities which American companies must invest in, al-though in Illinois it has made a cash deposit of $250,000; London Lloyds does not make any statement of any char-acter to any insurance department. Furthermore Lloyds is not subject to visitation and examination by any insur-ance department and it is not subject to any taxes levied by the laws of any to any taxes levied by the laws of any state, although it is subject to a 3 per-cent stamp tax upon premiums. London Lloyds, not being licensed, does not have any agents and pays no commissions. It does not pay any license fees for itself or its agents. London Lloyds, not being licensed, does not conform to any of the laws of the state and therefore is not subject to the reciprocal laws of the several states.

Discrimination Is Charged

Under the laws of the various states, American companies must file their rates on bankers' bonds. The laws provide that the rates filed must not discriminate between assured of the same class. These rates are filed by the American companies with departments that are open to the public. Lloyds can and do charge different rates to assured of the same class and discriminate between their assured, not only in the matter of rates but in the form of policies issued.

Mr. Miller states the American com-panies do not ask for any favors. All they ask is that any company or asso-ciation of underwriters shall meet the requirements imposed upon all com-panies duly licensed to transact the business. American companies object to the lack of any laws or requirements which will permit any companies, organizations or associations, to transact this business without observance of the requirements made upon American industry,

HEARING HURRIEDLY CALLED

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Called with practically no notice to interested parties, the senate interstate commerce committee last week held a hearing on various insurance measures aimed against London Lloyds.

Representatives of some of the insur-Representatives of some of the insur-ance companies appeared at the hearing to submit their views. It is not be-lieved that the legislation will be en-acted during the present session in view of the desire of congress to ad-journ as early in May as possible.

If the senate receives any of these ills without the committee holding further hearings, and passes them, it is expected that the house will go more deeply into the question before it takes any action.

WOULD MAKE LLOYDS RESPECTABLE

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—Insurance men were looking for the introduction of a bill which would "make respectable" policies written by London Lloyds. Representative Taft of Cleve-land is said to have been given the bill land is said to have been given the bill to introduce but has passed it on to another member, and that he had since said he would ask this member not to introduce it. The purpose of the bill, the authorship of which is in dispute, would be to reduce the tax on Lloyds policies from 5 to 2½ percent and include them in the intangible tax law. It was believed that in this way the col-It was believed that in this way the col-lection of the taxes could be legalized and made effective. It is said that in-surance men generally are opposed to the measure.

The old question then arises whether men who are put to work with these funds are employes or merely wards of the state. If they are wards, then there is no liability when they are injured. However, if they are held to be employes, then it is a question whether they are employes of the state, which distributes the money for their employment or whether they are employes of the local sub-division. local sub-division.

Will Use Endorsements

Most insurance companies will desire either to have such employes specifically included in the policy or specifically ex-cluded. Many companies insisted on that procedure even in connection with CWA employes, where the federal statute specifically brought these employes under the federal compensation law of

If these relief workers are held to be employes and employes of the state, then, it is likely that many of the states will undertake to assume all compensation liability and will set up self insur-ance plans. Some of these plans, that are being considered now, contemplate the setting aside of 3 percent of the payroll each week for the compensa-

In Illinois, although state employes come under the workmen's compensation act, their cases are not handled by the industrial commission but by the court of claims at Springfield.

There have been decisions in some of the states holding that relief workers are not employes in the legal sense and consequently are not entitled to compensation benefits. On the other hand, there was a decision of the Michigan supreme court that a relief worker, who is paid in cash, and who is not restricted is paid in cash, and who is not restricted in any way as to how he shall use his money, is an employe and is entitled to benefits. Under the new relief set up, in many states, case workers are assigned to study the situation of those applying for work. If they are found to be in need of employment, the case worker is instructed to determine how worker is instructed to determine how much money the family needs. Then, his wage is determined by the case worker's report. There is, however, no restriction on how the money shall be spent.

PROBLEM IN WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, April 4.—In view of the receipt of notice from the state emergency relief administration that Milwaukee county or the municipalities within it must assume the liability for compensation under the workmen's compensation act, the Milwaukee county board has taken steps to obtain from cities, villages and towns here agreements by which they will assume all claims for injuries to workmen under the new program, which follows the CWA. The city of Madison is now considering placing all city employes, including relief workers, under compensation. The city has assumed all compensation liability under the new arrangement, and bility under the new arrangement, and Alderman Sutherland suggested placing all city employes under insurance, since the city legally cannot assume liability for only a portion of its employes but that it must include all.

N. D. BUREAU FLOODED

BISMARCK, N. D., April 4.—Problems of applications for insurance of workmen employed on federal workrelief projects confront the North Dakota workmen's compensation bureau, according to Jack Pfeiffer, secretary of the bureau. Applications from county, city, township and school districts have swamped the bureau.

When the federal government ceased CWA work and inaugurated its new pro-

CWA work and inaugurated its new program of furnishing relief on a basis of need, it turned over the insurance of workmen employed on those projects to the political subdivision. As work cannot begin until the insurance is written, a sudden flow of applications has been directed at the compensation bureau.

One problem facing the bureau is inability of many subdivisions to pay in cash for their premiums. Registered warrants are being offered the bureau by such subdivisions.

CONNECTICUT SITUATION

HARTFORD, April 4 .- The Transient Camp Administration of Connecti-cut has been informed by Commissioner Dunham that there is no state insur-ance machinery which could force inance machinery which could force insurance companies to continue in force compensation insurance to cover workers in part paid by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration. Col. Dunham pointed out that under the FERA no special provision is made, as was the case under the CWA, for payment of compensation in case of injury. He adds that a "municipality which is now carrying workmen's compensation insurance in accordance with the provisions of the compensation act, would thereby provide for the payment of compensation to workmen who might be employed by the municipality even though paid in part from federal funds and in part from local funds."

While companies could not be com-

While companies could not be compelled to issue or to continue in force pelled to issue or to continue in force such policies, in a case where workmen's compensation insurance does cover a municipality, Mr. Dunham states it is his belief that it covers all employes of the insured companies. He also pointed out that the liability of the municipality evidence of the property of the state of the surprise of the state of the sta municipality exists even in the absence of such insurance.

Underwriters here have expressed the belief that the business would have little attraction for the insurance companies, and would probably be handled at a loss under the present FERA continuation of CWA projects.

PERSONALS

E. B. Field, casualty manager in the Hartford branch office of the Travelers, was honored by business associates recently in recognition of his 30th anniversary with the company, which he joined in 1904 as special agent in Hartford. In 1904-1906 he served the Travelers as casualty manager in Toledo, O., and the next two years in the same capacity in Minneapolis. He has been casualty manager of the Hartford branch since 1908.

C. H. Burras, president of Joyce & Co. of Chicago, has returned from a sojourn of about six weeks in Florida. sojourn of about six weeks in Florida. For several years he has been stopping in Florida at the Mt. Plymouth Golf hotel and this year Mr. Burras, to keep in trim, organized the Mt. Plymouth Guests Association to promote the general welfare. Naturally he is chairman of this society. of this society.

Homer Warren & Co., general agent Homer Warren & Co., general agent for the Fidelity & Casualty, has been admitted to the ranks of the Detroit Business Pioneers, an organization of companies or firms that have been in business in Detroit for 50 years or more. J. Alfred Grow, vice-president Michigan Association of Insurance Agents and past president Detroit Association of Insurance Agents, heads the insurance department of the agency. ance department of the agency

W. M. Paine, Jr., auditor for the Traders & General of Dallas, and W. C. Storch, adjuster for that company, were seriously burned and otherwise injured in a fire which destroyed a hotel at Longview, Tex., where they were stopping. Both will recover.

Dr. L. E. Evens, 65, surgical adviser at the home office of the Aetna Life group, for the past 20 years, died suddenly of heart failure at Meiners Oaks, near Ventura, Cal., while visiting rela-tives. He went to California following a visit to the Texas and Arizona agencies of the Aetna companies

Carl H. Smith, who was for some Carl H. Smith, who was for some time head of the engineering department of the Continental Casualty, and then was an engineer for Marsh & McLennan for several years, is director of safety in Cook County, Ill., for the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission. He held the same position with the Civil Works Administration. Much of his york consists of handling the company work consists of handling the compensation insurance problems in connection with the relief work

April 1 marked the 70th anniversary of the writing of the first accident contract in the United States by the Travelers. The casualty contract was an accident ticket issued by the Travelers, April 1, 1864, a year after it had been chartered, to James G. Batterson, founder of the company.

W. H. Kennedy, resident vice-president of the United States Fidelity & she garanty at Buffalo, son of the late J. Kennedy, former city alderman and state treasurer, died last week at his home after an illness of eight weeks.

He was a graduate of Cornell and studied law. His father had been resident vice-president of the U. S. F. & G. and when he was elected state treasurer, at that time the son was brought into the office as resident secretary. In 1927 he was made resident vice-president and manager. Although he graduated in law he never practiced. During his life-time Mr. Kennedy traveled extensively, making a number of trips to Europe.

G. S. Rodgers, 68, for 35 years general agent of the Maryland Casualty in Portland, Ore., died at his home there.

B. G. Wills, vice-president of the Fireman's Fund Indemnity, is en route to New York to take temporary charge of the company's eastern department office. He will be away from the head office several weeks.

A. L. Johnson, former president of the Public Indemnity, who is now living in San Francisco, his old home, has been recommended to Governor Rolph for insurance commissioner of California.

A. Duncan Reid, president of the Globe Indemnity, is again at his office after a month's vacation at Usippi Island, off the west coast of Florida, the first holiday he has had in three strenuous years.

Alex. Clark, Jr., special agent in central Pennsylvania for the Fidelity & Deposit, is to be married April 18 to Miss Helen Eyrion of Scranton. He is the son of Alex. Clark of the Scranton agency of Clark, Bushnell and Clark.

D. B. Wood, Minneapolis manager of the Fidelity & Deposit, says "Believe it or not," but here's the story:

Recently while driving his automobile near Lake City, on the Mississippi river southeast of Minneapolis, he hit a pheasant and it crashed through his windshield.

When he picked it from his lap the bird was without a head and every feather had been shaved off as closely as if it had been in a butcher shop.

To the Equity Mutual form, which is being used, is attached an endorsement, which carries a reproduction of sections 14 and 15 of the Illinois alcoholic liquor law. Coverage is provided under those sections with the exception that there is no liability where there is sale of liquor to minors or where violation of law is involved. The rate charged is one-half of 1 percent of the gross sales with a minimum premium of $125. Sepwith a minimum premium of $125. Separate policies must be issued to owners and to dealers. Limits of the policies are $7,500 for bodily injuries or death and $2,500 for property damage and claims for loss of support. The Equity Mutual is attempting to arrange reinsurance, so that higher limits may be sold.

Equity Mutual Figures

Mr. Dobry was formerly a broker connected with Fred S. James & Co. The Equity Mutual, in its Dec. 31, 1933, statement, shows assets, $116,122; unearned premium, $12,271; loss reserve, $508; liability and compensation reserve, $1,534; surplus, $100,578. Total premiums in 1933 were $17,461 and losses $1,059.

losses $1,059.

The casualty company which carried the O. L. & T. policy on the Brevoort hetel, will undoubtedly be liable should it be proved that the woman who claims she got pushed against the bar there, suffered any real injury. Since the alleged injury occurred on the premises, the O. L. & T. policy would probably cover.

Insurance adjustment of loss is made on a basis of actual cash value of the damaged property at the time of loss.

And if there is a coinsurance clause in effect, the amount to be recovered depends also upon the relation between actual cash value and the amount of insurance carried on the property.

Thus it is quite important, in fixing the amount of insurance on a building, that the owner (and the agent also) know at least approximately what the ACTUAL OR INSURABLE VALUE of that building is. Only thus can precaution be taken that the amount of insurance is (1) not less than it should be properly to protect the interest of the owner and (2) that the insurance on the building is not greater than the actual value of the building—that the owner does not pay for insurance that he does not get. VALUES HAVE CHANGED A LOT THESE LAST TWENTY YEARS—AND THEY ARE STILL CHANGING.

If you had something to carry in your inside coat pocket which would enable you at any time to arrive quickly and easily at the then approximate insurable values of various kinds of buildings it would help both you and your customers, wouldn't it?

You could then find out without delay whether the amount of insurance carried or proposed on a building is much greater than its insurable value, or much less than it should be to protect the assured properly and to comply with coinsurance requirements, if any.

With the 1934 "Handy Table" you will be prepared at any time to do these very things.

The 1934 HANDY TABLE supplies:

- 1. Construction costs of different kinds of buildings from 1913 to 1934.
- 2. Insurance depreciation percentages.
- 3. Cubical contents rules for different kinds of buildingsto be used if you cannot find out the original cost. Full and simple directions included.

CHARTS

"Most comprehensive, low priced, statistical" compilations of the fire & casualty business!")

EVEN THE PUBLIC STUDIES INSURANCE COMPANY FIGURES NOW

In contrast to a few years ago, today the public, as well as all insurance men, are keenly interested in insurance company statements and the business they transact. Agents really must have the latest available data of this kind to sell or advise authoritatively and convincingly.

NEW ARGUS CHARTS SHOW EXACT VALUA-TIONS—SECURITY RESERVES—CAPITAL STRUCTURE CHANGES—ALL COMPANIES

The new 1934 Argus Charts indicate clearly the changes in capital structure, the reserves for security fluctuation, and the exact bases of security valuation for the December 31st, 1931, 1932, and 1933 statements, as well as giving all the other vital figures from the companies' statements and the records of their business.

THE MOST INFORMATION AT LOWEST COST

Argus Charts show the data on many more companies than other charts, including All Stock, Mutual, Reciprocal and Lloyd organizations doing $25,000 premiums or more. The two Argus Charts treat over 500 companies, not given in other less comprehensive charts. And larger showings are given for some 350 additional companies not as fully treated in other charts.

> From no other source, can you obtain so much of this useful information, at so low a cost!

"You Can Find It In the ARGUS"

Frequently the smaller, perhaps not-so-well-known companies are the occasion of needed information. These companies are in the Argus Charts but usually omitted from other charts. "You can find it in the Argus" and you get "Fullest Measure" when you buy Argus Charts.
